

Finance Business Partnering

Duration 1-day

Course Description

This course is aimed at finance professionals who are looking at improving their performance in the role of finance business partnering. It will allow you to better support your organisation from a strategic and operational perspective and develop a more commercial approach in your role.

It will equip you to become more central to key decision making and give you the tools to enhance your relationship with key partners across the organisation. This will include understanding how to effectively present complex financial and operational information.

Outcomes

- Understand the importance of finance business partnering
- Understand the context of organisations and their environment
- How to balance the differing roles of a finance business partner
- Understanding your audience's needs
- Understanding how to become a trusted advisor
- Being able to present more effectively

Key Content

- Financial management process
- The need to improve decision making
- Understanding the business environment
- Understanding the business model
- Management control cycle
- The ever-increasing finance transformation
- Finance business partnering roles
- Management accounting roles
- Decision support and performance management
- Becoming a trusted advisor
- Conversations that generate insights
- Presenting with influence